Hello, my name is benjamin perez, I consider myself a junior web developer, I am quite skilled at communicating with the team, working in a team and I have also had the opportunity to lead small teams. I became a web developer because I am passionate about all this, I do it with a lot of incentive and I learn more and more every day.

WORK HISTORY

Right now I haven't had any work but I'm looking for some, I'm working on a personal project which would be a Dashboard for a discord bot that I'm developing with:

- React
- NodeJS
- Express
- Bootstrap.
